

This is my official comment on the proposed deregulation of media ownership. This deregulation does not serve the public interest--it only serves the interest of private corporations. I am against taking a vote that does not serve the public interests and results in media consolidation.